

The following is a summary of development activity within the City of Rocklin. This report covers development activity through April, 2013. The list includes proposed projects as well as those that have already been approved. The map sheets at the beginning of each section show the general location of each project within the City.