Retail & Restaurant Projects

Cante Ao Vinho Wine Tasting Room Opens in Historic Barudoni Building. Cante Ao Vinho is Portuguese for "sing to the wine". No singing required, but if you'd like to taste the wine, stop by the beautiful Barudoni Building at 5250 Front Street in downtown Rocklin across the street from Old St. Mary's Chapel. Cante Ao Vinho is a family winery that enjoys making wine in the Old World style. Owned and run by the Farinha Family, Cane Ao Vinho makes a variety of Portuguese, Spanish, French, and Italian style wines.

"We love three things: variety, sharing our wines with people who enjoy great wine, and having fun doing it. Very much the old world way," shares the Farinha family. "We make 12 to 15 different wines and we like to try making new wines every now and then. We taste 6 or so wines each weekend and change it up to keep it interesting."

Tasting room hours are Saturday and Sunday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tastings are $5, and are refunded with the purchase of a bottle of wine. Visit the website at www.canteaovinho.com.

Walmart Supercenter Opens. More Retailers to Open at Rocklin Crossings and Rocklin Commons. The Walmart Supercenter opened in Walmart Crossings at Sierra College and I-80 on Wednesday, November 13. Additional retailers that will be joining Walmart next spring include Panda Express, Petsmart and Great Clips. Across the freeway at Rocklin Commons, Target is scheduled to open in March. Joining Target in spring and summer of 2014 are Studio Movie Grill, Ross, Panera Bread and Steinmart. Look for announcements of other retailers soon!

Other Business News

William Jessup University offers Public Administration Degree for Working Adults. The Administration and Justice Program provides notable servant leadership by preparing and training students for careers in Public Administration or Criminal Justice. With William Jessup University's accelerated program, student's gain a strong foundation in knowledge and skills related to the management and organization of today's public agencies. This dual concentration program allows the student to choose a focus in Public Administration or Criminal Justice.

William Jessup University's blended program offers flexibility, allowing students to study at their own pace from their home or office, while retaining a level of structure to stay on track toward achieving educational goals. The program is scheduled for the convenience of the working adult and uses a cohort structure. All classes (except Capstone) are seven weeks in length and delivered using a blended method, combining the best in technology through online delivery with an intensive classroom experience. Each class will conclude with a two-day seminar on the last Friday/Saturday of each class. Students can conclude their degree in as short as 19 months (5 semesters). For more information, visit www.jessup.edu/sps/program/administration-and-justice.

Sierra College Invites Comments on 20 Year Master Plan. All campus members and the greater Sierra College community are invited to attend a public forum to preview the draft of the Rocklin Campus Facilities Master Plan.

The presentations will include: an overview of the plan, highlighting the implementation phases scheduled over the twenty-year roll-out; a description of how the environmental assessment of the plan is being conducted; and a discussion of potential development opportunities for the 72 and 36 acre parcels that are adjacent to the main campus (across Sierra College Blvd. and across Rocklin Road). Your participation in this important planning process is welcomed. The presentation will be held on Monday, December 2, 2013 from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the Board Room in the Library/Learning Resources Building.
